*In Education and English Honours courses though there is no vacant seat in General category some general category candidates have been called for third counselling as seats under General PWD category will be converted into general category seats.

To fill in these seats it has been decided that the third counselling for all Honours courses (both science and arts subjects) will be held on 11th July, 2017. The provisional merit list of applicants called for third counselling for Honours courses is uploaded in our admission web portal <http://ug.hgcadmission.org>. The date of admission of students selected in third counseling for all Honours courses is scheduled on 12..07.2017.

The reporting time for the applicants called for third counselling for admission to all Honours courses as stated in the above table is 12 noon to 1 p.m. The reporting time must be followed strictly and the applicants reporting late will not be allowed for counselling once the counselling starts. If any student who was present in first or second counselling but did not get chance of admission on that date does not find his/her name in the list of applicants called for third counselling as uploaded in our admission web portal, he or she must report to the convener of the Admission Committee on the date of third counselling within the reporting time as mentioned above.
